 OBITUARY (from THE TIMES):
 7th May 1891, Page 5, Column F

We regret to announce the death of Mr Lindsay Middleton Aspland QC LLD, of the Northern Circuit, which took place at his residence, Linden Gardens, early yesterday morning, after a short illness from influenza & Pneumonia. Mr Aspland who was the second son of the Rev Robert Brook Aspland, of Hackney, was born on 9th April 1843 and had therefore only just completed his 48th Year. He was called to the Bar at the Middle Temple in 1868, when he joined the Northern Circuit, and was made a Queen's Council in 1886. He was a member of Convocation, a member of the Council of University College, London, and had been a member of the Bar Committee since 1883. The learned gentleman was a regular attendant on the Northern Circuit and his sudden death will cause a widespread feeling of regret among his numerous friends in the legal profession. The deceased gentleman was as late as Friday last arguing a case before the Court of Appeal.
