NOTES:

Info from Glenys Brown <charles_brown196@hotmail.com>

After the birth of Henry Herbert in Airmyn, the family moved to Beeston in Nottinghamshire. Florence was then a Coal Carter and George was a gardener. Here they had Reg (1916) then Muriel (1918), Harold (1920) and finally Joan in 1925. They all stayed in the Nottingham area. Reg was a fireman and later a traffic warden. Harold was a butcher and then worked for the council. Joan was a bus conductor then a housewife. Muriel was an admin person then married Harry Hopewell in 1943 and had me (Glenys) in 1945. I married Charles in 1968 and we now have 3 boys born 1978, 82 and 86.
