David Stephenson of Bilton in the said Riding, Labourer, acknowledges to owe to our Sovereign Lord the King, the sum of Twenty Pounds.
To be Levied
Upon the condition that if the above bound James Stephenson do appear at the next Quarter Sessions of the Peace to be held in and for the said Riding and also perform such Order and Orders which shall be made upon him touching his begetting Jane Myers of Sproatley in the said Riding, Singlewomoan, with child and not depart the Court without leave, then the Recognizance to be void, and also remain in full force.
Taken and acknowledged this 29th January 1771
before me
Isaac Broadley"
Comment from Steve Morgan:-
James Stephenson was probably the father of all Jane's children even though there was only one Order against him (Common Law husband).
If he was bound to pay for the first child at the Quarter Sessions, then a verbal promise before the Overseers to the Poor would be enough for the rest of the children. Jane would have had to have presented the children to the Overseers, so the Court Records may have details.
