Death Date : 3rd November 1941

Age at Death : 21 years

Memorial : Chatham Naval War Memorial

KILLED IN ACTION :

Between 3rd March and 10th August 1941, Dennis was attached to a land-based Anti-Aircraft Battery. He was then transferred to the 6/3 Maritime unit, as a Gunner aboard Merchant Ships crossing the Atlantic, bringing supplies from North America.

At 09.03 hours on 31st October 1941 the unescorted Merchant Ship "Rose Schiaffino" (Master Thomas Percival Evans) was hit on port side by one of two G7e torpedoes fired by the German Submarine "U-374" and it sank by the stern within 30 seconds about 90 miles east-northeast of St. John's, Newfoundland. The master, 36 crew members and four gunners were lost. "Rose Schiaffino" had originally joined convoy SC-51 after leaving Wabana and returned to St. John's when she became a straggler on 27 October. The ship then sailed again independently, presumably to join another convoy at sea, but was sunk shortly after leaving port. On Board when sunk were the following :-
